Mac & Me

Log

What happens when a lonely drifter and a talking Apple PowerBook meet on the side of the road? An uproarishly entertaining family oriented 'Odd Couple' comedy of dramatic proportions. That's what happens!

"Mac & Me" depicts societal drifter HARVEY WASHINGTON and his talking PowerBook MAXINE's journey from being a homeless pair to two local heroes and finally becoming multimillionaire online traders on a quest for true love.

Syn

One day while doing what drifter HARVEY WASHINGTON does best, drifting, a package falls from a delivery truck landing near him. Upon opening it, HARVEY discovers a talking Apple laptop computer named MAXINE.

Quickly earning HARVEY's trust, MAXINE suggests hitchhiking to save time and energy, a thought that's never crossed HARVEY's mind. Doing so while MAXINE takes a nap, HARVEY is picked up by psychotic killer LANGLEY THOMPSON and taken to a remote location and forced to perform some twisted ritualistic funerals.

With surprising innovation from MAXINE distracting THOMPSON, HARVEY overwhelms and captures the killer delivering him to the police, whom in turn give HARVEY a huge reward and the nations press immediately dub him adoringly, 'HARVEY The Hero.' And in accordance with standard Hero Etiquette, HARVEY and MAXINE are given free quarters in the Governors Suite while shopping and preparing for his upcoming talk show appearances.

Now, having a chance to join the Grid of society, MAXINE educates HARVEY on the ins and outs of modern day living with lessons on surfing the Internet, online dating, world travel, stocks and bonds and relocation.

Shortly after moving to San Francisco HARVEY meets the beautiful apple eating addicted EVENING STARR (EVE for short) at his favorite Internet café as she flyers for her popular Apple Computer learning course "Mac & Me." Realizing HARVEY's 'love at first site' encounter before HARVEY himself, MAXINE cons HARVEY into attending EVE's class in exchange for HARVEY's wish that they help out his only 'organic' friend, the gay cross-dressing Online Trading Rep., Bob, out of the ridiculous rogue and illegal debt he's gotten himself into.

Once attending EVE's classes HARVEY realizes the only thing standing between him and the attention from the woman of his dreams... are the other classmates. With characters such as LINCOLN RUTKOWSKI, a young anti-Bill Gates aficionado who wants to be a famous hacker and wears "Jobb's is God" t-shirts or STELLA ADAMSON, aka Bambi, who wants to distribute her porn online and become the next Pamela Anderson, it's a miracle that HARVEY finally wins EVE's attention, affection and her heart when he gives her a young apple tree as a gift at the surprise birthday party he arranges for her one evening.

Yet all the while, HARVEY's never ending doting over MAXINE gives EVE tinges of jealousy feeling second to another woman she's never met and what's worse, at the peak of their new relationship EVE discovers MAXINE is a computer. After completely freaking out and acting on the advice from the CAA (Computer Addicts Anonymous) and also fearing the worst for HARVEY's mental stability, EVE makes a failing attempt to destroy MAXINE. Instead, EVE pours her heart out, woman to 'woman', begging MAXINE never to talk to HARVEY again, for his own sake.

MAXINE takes matters into her own hands (keys) telling HARVEY she desperately needs a software update before embarking on the coveted acquisition of the first company they bought stock in some years ago. HARVEY plugs her in and leaves the office. When returning some hours later MAXINE is gone. Was she ever really there? HARVEY will never hear from her again.

Years later, HARVEY runs around a grown apple tree chasing his 8 year old apple-eating daughter as EVE sits on a blanket breast feeding an infant. Through the window 6-year-old HARVEY Jr. appears to be IM chatting with someone with a computer icon and the name, MAXINE.

TAG

Mac & Me is a family oriented, feature length, dramatic-romantic comedy putting an interesting twist on the "buddy film" archetype. With its action, comedy, drama and gadgets it's the perfect film for viewers of all ages and interests and not only the millions of Apple products fans around the globe.
